Whereas, a public meeting of citizens of Washingon was held at Carusi's Saloon, on the 19th instant, pon a call made in and approved by the Executive rgan, the proceedings of which, in the resolutions as to have been adopted at that meeting, and in the seeches of certain selected orators at a subsequent djourned meeting, are now spread before the public ye in the columns of said organ, and its kindred reases, with approbation; and whereas said resoluons, however dressed up in abstract professions of striotiam, assail principles dear to the American surfasch necessary to the safety of the constitution and to the peace and prosperity of our country; and thereas, the Executive is invoked therein to remove our public employment such officeholders as enterdin those principles, thereby to perpetrate a ruthless rescription of both Whigs and Democrats for an oneat difference of opinion: therefore—Resolved, That mere professions of love to the conitation and to civil and religious freedom, when outradiend by asthons, cannot decive the sensible

Resolved, That the fourth resolution of the meeting Carusi's Salcon, recommending to the President of a United States proscription of all officers of the leral government who may have thought fit to be me members of the association of Know Knoths, and the second of the association of Know Knoths, and the second of the ciple of a separation of Church and State—in which principle many American Catholics sincerely concur, while on the other hand, the Papal Church abroad openly, and always, and everywhere maintains the doctrine of obedience of the civil to the ecclesiastical authority, both in Europe and America; the sad and ruinous effects of which, in the one, are seen in countless emigrants flying from its tyranny and misery to our own happy land, and in the other, in the ignorance and poverty of the masses, in the wealth and vices of the clergy, and in the ceaseless insurrections, massacres, and proverbial instability of our Southern sister Republics.

Resoleed, That upon these principles we appeal from the opinions, whose proclamation has caused this meeting, to the people of the United States; and, although we might infer they are an exponent of executive feelings, from the official positions of those who controlled the proceedings, yet we will still hope that the President, who alone has the power, will arrest the proserption already begun of faithful office-holders, both Democrats and Whigs, for daring to entertain American and Protestant sentiments, and will reject the mercenary suggestion urged upon him by the fourth resolution of the meeting least week, as a covert acheme to gratify the appetite of office-seckers at the expense of many who zealously and efficiently aided in his elevation to power, and whose removal under existing circumstances will fix an indelible stain upon him as a man and as the President of the United States.

Resolved, That having seen the denunciations that almost daily issue from certain presses against the "fusionists" of the North, who are denounced as absorbed in "the traitorous factions" which distract those States, by which they are one after another being placed in opposition to the administration, we were astonished to hear the pressing invition in the second resolution of our opponents to men of all political opinions, without regard to their "political antecedents," be form a "fusion"

First. We shall advocate a repeal of the laws of naturalization, or if that cannot be accomplished, then such a modification of those ne years, after taking the oath of alleto the United States, and of abjuration demand from any government, which may send hither such classes of its subjects, imme-diate and ample satisfaction for such outrage, and a proper indemnity against the repetition

Third. We shall oppose the election or ap-pointment of any foreign-born citizen to any office of trust, honor or emolument, under the Federal or State governments, or the employment or enlistment of such persons in the army or navy in time of war; maintaining, as we opinion, that the native-born citizens of the United States have the right to govern the land of their birth; and that all immigrants from abroad should be content with the enjoyment of life, liberty and property, under our institutions, without seeking to participate in the enaction, administration, or execution of our laws.

Fourth. We shall advocate and urge the adoption of such an amended form of an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and to be administered to all persons elected or appointed to any office of trust, honor or emolument, under the Federal or State gov ernments, as will effectually exclude from such offices all persons, who shall not directly and explicitly recognise the obligations and binding force of the Constitution of the United States, as paramount to all obligations of adhesion or allegiance to any foreign prince, power, potentate, or authority whatever, under any and Fifth. We shall maintain the doctrine that o one of the States of this Union has the right to admit to the enjoyment of free suffrage any person of foreign birth, who has not been first made a citizen of the United States, according to the "uniform rule" of naturalization prescribed by Congress, under the provisions of Sixth. We shall oppose, now and hereafter, any "union of Church and State," no matter what class of religionists shall seek to bring about such union.

Seventh, We shall vigorously maintain the vested rights of all persons, of native or foreign birth, and shall at all times oppose the slightest interference with such vested rights.

Eighth. We shall oppose and protest against all abridgment of religious liberty, holding it as a cardinal maxim, that religious faith is a question between each individual and his God, nd over which no political government, or other human power, can rightfully exercise any supervision or control, at any time, in any place, or in any form. Ninth. We shall oppose all "higher law" doctrines, by which the constitution is to be set at nought, violated, or disregarded, whether by politicians, by religionists, or by the adherents or followers of either, or by any other class of Tenth. We shell maintain and defend the constitution as it stands, the Union as it exists, and the rights of the States, without diminution as guaranteed thereby: opposing at all times and to the extent of our ability and influence, all who may assail them, or either of them.

Eleventh. We shall oppose no man, and sustain no man, on the ground of his opposition to, or his support of, Democratic measures, or Whig measures; but we shall oppose those who oppose our doctrines, and sustain those who sustain our doctrines.

Twelfth. And lastly, we shall use our utmost exertions to build up an "American party," whose maxim shall be: AMERICANS SHALL RULE THEIR COUNTRY!

"AMERICAN ORGAN," A Daily and Weekly Paper, published in Washing-ton City, D. C., by AN ASSOCIATION OF NATIVE AMERICANS.

A Protective Tariff for the sake of protection, which once divided parties and distracted our National Councies, has become obsolete, as a question of party policy, simply because a "resenue terriff" affords incidental protection to American Manufactures. A modification of the details of our present tariff system is all that is demanded by the most strenuous advocates of protection to American Industry.

The distribution of the proceeds of the public lands among the several States, as formerly claimed by one party, have both yielded to a compromise of these condicting opinions, so far, at least, as to sink these questions as tesses between Whigs and Democrats. A plan formed of a compound of "squatter sovereignty," of "graduation," and of a "surrender to the States" in which they lie, seems likely to withdraw the public lands from the arena of future party contests.

The improvement of harbors and rivers by congressional aid, on which political parties have hitherto differed at different times, has now become less a question of principle than of local and sectional contest; and it will doubtless be adjusted by the next Congress, upon that basis of liberality and justice demanded by the spirit of the age and the true interests of the questions, of minor importance, on which, at manded by the spirit of the age and the true interests of the country.

Other questions, of minor importance, on which, at different times, the two prominent parties of the country disagreed, have now, by a change of circumstances, become obsolete. What, then, remain as issues of any theoretical or practical importance between Whigs and Democrats? We know of none; and if these hitherto rival parties shall maintain their respective organizations, they will do so for the mere sake of the epoids of poner!

But new issues have arisen, having no reference to the party organizations of Whigs and Democratasus which are vastly important in their bearing upon the future welfare of the country—and which issues must, in their discussion, progress, and termination, annihilate these two parties, which, for years past, have battled, with alternate success, for political supremacy.

THE AMERICAN ORGAN.

THE AMERICAN ORGAN.

The publication will commence on the 12th day of November daily, and on the 20th weekly.

A cash capital, amply sufficient to commence and to continue the enterprise, has been subscribed and secured to be advanced by a number of wealthy and influential gentlemen; and we are insured a daily sirculation surpassing that of any paper now published in Washington city. The number of our weekly subscribers will depend upon the enthusiasm of our friends in the several States, but we have such assurances that we cannot doubt we shall commence with samy thousands; and that a year will not transpire before our weekly list will be swelled to more hundred thousand.

Our position at the seat of the federal government than one hundred thousand.

Our position at the seat of the federal government, the centre of our political system, where all the representatives of the States, and of the people annually assemble, and where prominent men of all parties periodically assume for many months, is considered periodically sejours for many months, is considered by us, and by our friends, as the most favorable one for the publication of the organ of the Anreicas Parky; and if the most untiring devotion to the advocacy of the doctrines and policy of this party shall give us a claim to its support, we know we shall deserve, and we trust we shall receive it.

We cannot perhaps more distinctly and concisely define the basis on which the American Organ is established than by presenting the following extract, which we copy and adopt from an address of a former President of the Missouri Native American Association, and published at St. Louis in February, 1841, to wit:
